

I am totally opposed to the consolidation of media giants. We must have diversity in order to hear the many voices of our public. Stop this nonsense now, before we lose the freedom of speech on which, in part, this democracy was based.